DON ENRIQUE SULKS AND REFUSES TO START IN OAKLAND FEATURE.

Deutschland Defeated by Billy Pullman-Anna L. Daley Scores at Her First Attempt-Adverse Legislation Not Feared.

San Francisco, Cal., November 28.—Don Enrique, recent conqueror of the chief turf celebrities in training here, including Dorante, created a sensation today by refusing to start in the feature race being left standing at the post. Butler rode Elison's heavily backed gelding and both horse and rider were unready at the barrier. It was a clear case, however, of a suky horse and this trait, cemmon to his sire's progeny, was betraved in the favorite's preliminary gailop. General Thomas McGregor, U. S. A., an henored guest in the pressstand, remarked on Bon Enrique's mean looks when going to the post. Despite free use of his whip and spurs, Butler was unable to make him budge for a seemingly interminable time. When he finally got to going, the others were acarrly a half naile in the lead, Pursuit therefore was unavailing and entry cantered the journey. Cressina outbroke and cutpaced her four remaining contestants decisively. W. T. Overton, Tony Faust, Frank Flitther and Milford ran throughout in Indian file and finished as named. Another incident of the running of a fine card was Strike Out's runsway of a mile before the start. His regular rider, Holmes, had been discarded, but he was too big a handful for the diminuity Upton and went around the track at top speed, A coup would probably have materialized but for the first agreements of Freed Cockets accessed the contest of Freed Cockets accessed the sent of the contest of Freed Cockets accessed the contest of the contest of Freed Cockets accessed the contest of the cockets accessed the cockets accessed the contest of the cockets accessed the cocket

A coup would probably have materialized but for this, and the state of the state took the remaining winning mount on Billy Pullman.

Glorious weather prevailed. The track was still cuppy and comparatively slow and difficult, still favorities maintained their ascendancy, accounting for half of the card.

Senator Gus Hartman, one of the biggest men politically in the state of California, and an outspoken champion of thoroughbred racing and clean sport of all kinds, was a visitor at Oakland this afternoon. The senator said that the coming legis lature might possibly, though very improbably, enact a few mild and reasonable restrictive laws governing racing. It is a very fine lot of liberal-minded men composing the present senate and assembly, and neonic in favor of the sport have nestitively no fear of adverse legislation. Winter racing in California means millions of dollars to business interests throughout the state every six months, besides incalculable benefits derived from the enormous advertising the state derives through its race meetings.

Twenty-nine books reported at the new cut-in, Ambrose Dunn and the St. Louis Club being absentees.

es. All of P. T. Chinn's racers have been shipped uth, which leaves W. H. Spence without a stable train.

GIVE UP AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans. La., November 28,—Racing at the Louisiana Driving and Racing Club's half-mile track was suspended this afternoon and there will be no further attempt to race. Manager Jack Loyacano stated that the three-days meeting had cost the club about $10,000. They had put up all purses and other expenses and they would be out that much on the venture. He declared that it was impossible to race in New Orleans under the Locke law with the antagonistic sentiment that exists here.

They had believed they could carry on a ninety-days meeting successfully and had gone to heavy expense in preparation, but the people would not attend without bookmaking and betting features. Therefore, after seeing a few hundred stragglers enter the gate today, where there should have been thousands on a Saturday afternoon, the managenthousands on the borses that were here will be shipped to El Paso. Texas, although some will go to Havand and California.

William Murray, manager of the El Paso race meeting, is here and he has secured the bulk of the stock and talent for the western circuit. This puts an end to any attempt at racing in New Orleans this winter. Neither of the two big tracks will make any effort to open their gates. Rome Respess, a large stockholder of City Park, left last night after severay days' conferences here, fully satisfied that it would be impossible to hold any races this year.

WHEATCROFT LEASES WOODBURN FARM.

Lexington, Ky., November 28.—Irving H. Wheat-croft today leased from William Simms for one year 350 acres of Woodburn Farm, Spring Station, and Monday morning will remove the stallions Cesarion, Yorkshire Lad and 130 mares and weanlings from McGrathiana Farm. Next year the stallions and mares will be shipped to British Columbia.

Mrs. Algernon Daingerfield was severely scalded while in a bath at the home of her father, Colonel Henry Duncan, this morning and is now in the Good Samaritan Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Daingerfield had made preparations to return to New York tomorrow.

John S. Offutt of Meadowthorpe Stud, who sold all his thoroughbreds in the sale this week, has bought a farm in Oklahoma and will leave for his new state next week.

The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder, edited for the past four years by Jouett Shouse, today was sold to L. B. Shropshire, who will publish it at Louisville as a live stock and farm paper, discontinuing the thoroughbred horse department to which it was chiefly devoted.

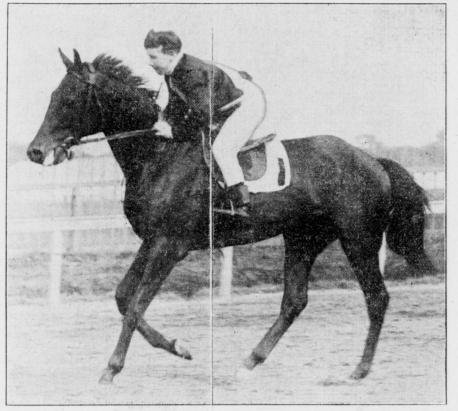

RECENT CANADIAN ACQUISITION.

Montreal, Que., November 28.—Sea Horse II., champion thoroughbred of New Zealand, and as well known in Australia and England as he is in the Linited States, has been secured by the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding, and will be brought to Montreal.

He was foaled in New Zealand in 1896, and is by Nelson, which won the Auckland Cup of $5,000 three times. Nelson was in training seven seasons. He started sixty-five times, mostly in stakes, and was first twenty-three times, second eighteen times and third six times.

His dam's sire, Goldborough, was one of the greatest stake winners in Australia, and on his dam's side he has two crosses of Fisherman, the world-famous Australian horse, which won no less than seventy races.

CREDITABLE RECORD OF A TWO-YEAR-OLD HALF-BROTHER TO M'CHESNEY

NEWCASTLE STABLE'S B. G. 2, WISE MASON, BY SEMPRONIUS-MANOLA MASON.

For the reason that he is a half brother to McChesney the performances of Wise Mason were of more than ordinary interest to those Chicagoans who but a few years back were in the habit of deeming the mighty white-faced chestnut able to cope successfully with any race horse in the land. It cannot be said that Wise Mason raced up to the standard of his famous half brother, but he ran well and may show great improvement as a three-year-old. McChesney himself was benten many times when a two-year-old, running unsuccessfully in nine races before he finally achieved his first win in a purse race at Hawthorne. He afterwards developed into one of the greatest race horses of his time and, in the way of a family characteristic, it may be that Wise Mason will enulate his example.

He made his debut in a selling race at Brighton Beach, July 17, and ran fourth to Rubia Granda, Lady Selina and Arionette, at five furlongs in 1:01\(\text{k}\). In his next attempt he improved over this showing by winning a purse at five and a half furlongs in 1:07\(\text{k}\), with 119 pounds, defeating Arondack, 101; O. U. Kid, 102, and two more. Then he ran unplaced at the same distance to Etherial, Sententious and Ruble, but was unlucky and pocketed. Moving over to the Empire City track, he won at his first start, defeating Grania, Arondack, Ragman and ten more at three-quarters of an ine 1:12\(\text{k}\), a very creditable display of speed. In another purse race at the same track he won from Personal, Tom Hayward and three others, at two and a half furlongs in 1:08\(\text{k}\) with ease. Then, in the valuable Knickerbocker Handicap, for two-year-olds at about three-quarters of a mile, he ran fourth to Dick Roller, Erbet and Footpad. He carried 115 pounds to 112 on Dick Roller, 100 on Erbet and 119 on Footpad and was barely beaten out for third place. On the second day of the Gravesend autumn meeting Fitz Herbert defeated him by a head at five and a half furlongs, run in 1:07\(\text{k}\). Madman was third and three more unplaced. In his next Sts.

STANLEY FAY IN TRIUMPH.

OUTSTAYS VOX POPULI IN THE MAIN FEAT-URE AT SANTA ANITA PARK.

La Gloria Sets a New Track Record-All Alone Disappoints Admirers-Jockey J. Lee Reports for Duty.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 28.—A large and enthusiastic Saturday crowd was present today and was well repaid for its trip to the course at the foot of the mountains, for the racing was productive of three cracking, close finishes, Secretary Smith presented one of his best cards and, although the fields were comparatively small, they were so well balanced as to furnish exciting sport throughout the afternoon.

The event of the day went to W. Walker's crack three-year-old, Stanley Fay, which was beavily supported by the public. Vox Populi set him a merry pace for the first seven furiongs, but here Stanley Fay overhauled him, the two fighting it out under keen urging to the line. Stanley Fay's splendid gameness stood him in good stead in the closing strides and he got his head over the winning mark in front.

All Alone disappointed a number of casterners in the day's opener by failing to finish inside the money. La Gloria was at her best today and, generously supported by public and sharpshooters alike, made the others in the last race look chemp. The time, 1:05% for five and one-half furlongs, elipped off a fifth of a second from the track record. Old Dutiful, the gray that has run some peculiar races here in the last few years, was not allowed to start today. He was not in any condition to race and Judge Hamilton put him on the retired list.

Jockey J. Lee arrived this afternoon and will ride here for F. A. Foreythe.

The horses of the Sobre Vista Stable, property of A. B. Spreckels, will be sold by auction in the string.

MAHER'S GREAT CAREER IN ENGLAND,

Lands First in the Jockey List This Year in Wins and Percentage.

Danny Maher, the American jockey, has completed the most successful year he has had since he began riding in England. The flat racing season came to an end yesterday and found Maher at the head of the jockey list. He has scored a total of 139 firsts, including the last race in which he rode. Although this is the first time that Maher has had the honor of heading the list of English jockeys, except in percentage, it is not because he was not successful in the saddle over there, but rather a lack of opportunity to ride oftener, due to inability to make low weight.

Danny Maher rode for the first time in England in September 1900, the mount being a winning one. Arriving so late in the year gave him only a limited time to prove his ability, but that was soon evident. In the short time that remained he rode twenty-seven winners and finished the season with a percentage of 21.09 and only once since then has it been less. In 1903 Maher was the victim of a motor car accident, the injuries from which caused his life to be despaired of and kept him out of the saddle for many weeks.

Still, that year he rode fifty-six winners and had an average of 13.78, which was the lowest of his career on the English turf. He led the jockeys in matter of percentage four different years and from 1900 to and including 1907, a period of cight seasons, he earned a general average of 23.02, a remarkable record. Maher rode the winners of many of the oldest fixtures of the English turf, including three Derbys. Maher is very popular with the British turf patrons and his services are always in demand. An American returning from England recently said:

"About the only American that seems to get along perfectly in England is Danny Maher, and it is pretty good betting that Danny is more English now than they are themselves. He has got along because he is shrewd enough to cater to them and to take up their ways and make them his own. Of course, they like him because he is capable, too, but it wouldn't be easy to call to mind another instance of the

The Daily States of New Orleans, in commenting on the recent decision handed down by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the case of Melville Collins, charged with a violation of the Hart-Agnew law, says:

"No matter how deeply interesting the value of personal liberty may appeal to the majority that makes up the real ruling power in every state in our Union, very few in the Crescent City will absorb what the decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the state of New York meant to nearly 100,000 fairly good citizens of that common-wealth.

"It was a decision that will have great weight in the endeavors of fair-minded people to check the almost insane efforts of those members of legislatures throughout the south and west were made to vote blindly, not only in putting racing out of business, but everything else that savored in any way as being within the speculative zone.

"The decision in the state of New York shows that it is still of the opinion that the Percy-Gray bill was good law and the Hart-Agnew measure was a sumptuary act.

"If the Hart-Agnew bill as a law is carried to the same body it must decide it unconstitutional, as its verdict in the gerrymander cases in the state of New York made the senate de facto, thereby making Governor Hughes' call for an extra session an usurpation, and an act that that court cannot stulitify itself enough to accept.

"Or, in other words, while no one denies the right of states to police themselves, the people at large will not allow its servants to dictate to them the curtalment of their personal rights and privileges.

"Then why, if the people of New Orleans wish to patronize racing, a sport which has been maintained within the environs of the Crescent City for over forty years, should so-called reformers assume that the people who are trying to promote it along acted Locke bill are a band of highwaymen?

"Perhaps it would have been better if the mile track people who are trying to promote it along acted Locke bill are a band of highwaymen

OLD CHINA'S MANCHESTER HANDICAP.

London, Eng., November 28.—The Manchester November Handicap, which closed the English flat racing season, was won by Old China, with Simonson second and Cargill third. Twenty started and Old China was an outsider in the betting at 20 to 1. Simonson was 100 to 6 and Cargill 11 to 2. The favorite, Norman III., August Belmont's starter, had some following, but the fact that he carried top weight, coupled with his recent poor performances, did not impress the shrewd ones and his market was a sentimental one.

It included four stallions (Arkle, Gerolstein, Shapfell and Goldspinner, a son of Goldfinch); three broodmares (one a daughter of Persimmon), eight two-year-old fillies and eleven year-ling fillies, all of them by sires mentioned in the foregoing. The total amount realized by these twenty-six animals was $14.270, which gives an average of less than $545 each. The yearling and two-year-old fillies made altogether $9.190, the average being about $510. A daughter of Greenan fetched top price, $1,970, Senor D. J. Atucha bidding that amount for her. Arkle and Shapfell, which were purchased in England in 1899 for $12.500 and $2,500 respectively, now made $825 and $655.

MILTON YOUNG STILL OWNS MANY HORSES.

Lexington, Ky., November 28.—When Scarf Pin, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Springbok and Emerald. was knocked down to the bid of Colonel Milton Young for $125 at the Corrigan dispersal sale Wednesday morning, there was general surprise among the horsemen at the ringside.

"Back in the game so soon?" shouted some. "I knew he couldn't stay out of it long." Said a voice. "Are you going to take her to the Argentine Republic?" queried another, and similar inquiries were fired at the Master of McGrathiaua in a good-natured vein until auctioneer Easton rapped his hummer sharply upon the box to call attention to another horse in the ring.

"That's just a necktie adornment that I've picked up at a bargain." answered Colonel Young. "I guess I might as well tell you now as at any other time that this isn't the only thoroughbred I own. I bought back forty-seven of those that went through my sale, including the stallion. Wools-thorpe, because I had an opportunity to pick them up cheaply, and I have rented a barn and a part of the farm that I sold to Messrs. Thomasson & Coons on the Tate's Creek Pike, where I will keep them for the present. What I shall eventually do with them, I do not know; but I am certain that I will not take any of them to the Argentine Republic.

"I expect to leave for Buenos Ayres about January I, and will remain there three or four months, maybe longer, investigating conditions. If I conclude to locate there, and I think I will, I shall buy a farm and then go to England and spend another six months selecting stallions and mares for my stud in the new place. The mares that I have picked up since the sale are worth much more than they were knocked down for and I can afford to hold them as an investment."

The following is the list of the horses now owned by Colonel Young:

It will be noted that twenty-six of the thirty-six mares were bred to Cesarion, and it is reasonable to presume that the majority of them are in foal and will produce living colts or filles. Likewise six of the eleven weanlings are by him. The get of Cesarion have been doing things and they are in demand. The forty-eight head did not cost Colonel Young a great deal more than $10,000 and it is next to a cinch that he will get that back with interest during the coming two years and still have the mares left if he should choose to keep them.

Toronto, Ont., November 27.—The Repository was decorated in the racing colors of the Waterloo stable and filled with an interested crowd when the sale of the thoroughbred mares and horses in training from the establishment of J. E. Seagram opened Thanksgiving morning.

saie of the thoroughbred mares and horses in training from the establishment of J. E. Seagram opened Thanksgiving morning.

After an introduction by H. J. P. Good the business of the sale was taken up and carried briskly along by Charles A. Burns, the manager and auctioneer of the big Simcoe street mart. Good prices were obtained and everything offered was disposed of. Buyers were present from points as widely separated as Quebec and Vancouver and several bargains went to both these cities. Sir Montagu Allan, president of the Montreal Jockey Club, and Allan Boswell, vice-president of the Quebec Turf Club, secured some choice mares, bred to Havoc and Ypsilanti, whose progeny will in time be seen in the Quebec King's Plate.

After the sale Mr. Seagram said: "I have just had a telegram from my agent in Lexington that he has bought a number for me for as much as these here brought, and they are not one whit better bred that what I have just disposed of, but I have to have infusions of new blood among my stock at The details of the sale were:

STATISTICS OF THE HOUSTON RACING

The Houston Jockey Club's meeting of twelve days, which came to an end Saturday, November 14, was the most successful one given by that organization when viewed either from the attendance or racing standpoint.

Some 5,000 people attended the races daily throughout the meeting and speculation was keen and brisk at all times, keeping from twenty to thirty books busy every day.

The racing brought about many close and exciting finishes, the duel between First Premium and Joe Stokes in the Ben Levy Handicap being especially worthy of notice.

The work of the officials during the meeting was most praiseworthy. The starting of Arthur McKnight was so uniformly good that the public had little chance to find fault, and he left that city with a reputation well earned of being one of the best starters in the country.

Hart Dernham's work as racing secretary has won him many friends among Texas race-goers, his well balanced programs contributing to the many interesting races witnessed during the meeting.

The meeting has been singularly free from scandal, due to the strict censorship of Judge Murphy, who has become very popular with the racing people of the south. His punishment of Jockey Morfarity, whom he ruled off the turf for life for a dishonest ride, while severe, was just.

During the twelve days of racing the Houston Jockey Club distributed $20,000 in purses, of which the following owners won $300 or more each:

One of the most striking features of the Houston meeting was the riding of jockey Butwell. His work in the saddle easily eclipsed that of the other boys taking part in the meeting. He had a mount in nearly every race, sixty-nine in all, riding twenty winners, eleven seconds and eight thirds. Butwell accomplished a very rare feat when he rode eight winners in two days, four each day. His presence on the track always brought forth enthusiastic applause from the Texas race-goers, with whom he became very popular. The record of the jockeys riding at the meeting is as follows:

HANDICAP OF JOCKEYS.

From time to time Daily Racing Form will publish a table of the comparative rating of those jockeys whose skill in the saddle has already been well demonstrated and of those who have not arrived but give promise of coming excellence. The handleap will divide these riders into four classifications, of which those admittedly in the front rank of their calling will be indicated by 100, thence downward through 95 and 90 to 80, the lowest classification from which advancement upward will come when justified by good riding. The table will also show the number of mounts, wins, seconds, thirds and unplaced from January 1, 1907, will be corrected from week to week, and is as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

In order to stand the telling climate at Havana, many horses which will be raced there during the winter are being trained at Tampa, Fla., where the temperature is only slightly different from that of Cuba. When the borses leave Tampa they will be acclimated and it will not take long to condition them for racing at Havana.

W. O'B. Macdonough regards Cotytto as one of the best fillies in training. Cotytto is a bay filly by Solitaire II.—The Peeress, by His Highness, which was formerly owned by Prince Poniatowski. Cotytto was bred on the Menlo Park Farm of Macdonough and was later sold to Adolph Spreckels. She has won three races and finished second in her other start since the opening of the Oakland season.

A peculiar accident occurred on the closing day of the Houston meeting which resulted in the death of the five-year-old Daring. The horse, with Munden up, was a contestant in the sixth race, but stumbled and fell after passing the quarter. On arising to his feet he ran away in an opposite direction from the other horses. After Kizil had won the race and before he could be pulled up he collided with Daring, coming from the other way, resulting in the latter's death.

To Race-Goers and Players

Any one can select favorites. They can be found in many of the leading newspapers of various large cities. Favorites frequently lose and when they win the odds laid against them are so short as to scarcely justify the risk involved. After more than a year's study and close application to the racing problem. I am convinced that a fair number of winners at long odds can be selected and if played on a reasonable basis, will yield a large percentage upon the amount invested. LOSERS, READ THIS.

Send for a new and logical scheme, which, for simplicity, sense and profit, beats any method on earth. Uses small capital. Can be played a track, room or in handbook. Only a limited number will be sold, as I do not want too many playing this system. Will include list of horses sent me from track due to win next start. Here's your chance. Price for both, $3.00.

R. H. MOUNT, Norwalk, Conn.

READ THIS! THEN THINK IT OVER.

Are you playing the races and losing all the time?

Do you bet carelessly on a sort of haphazard system?

If you do, no wonder you lose. Let me place you on the right track. On this system you can make from $10 to $20 per day. I have done it for years and you can do the same at race track, poolroom or in a handbook. It makes no difference—this is no experiment, but a genuine reality. I made $3,060 last year and you can do the same.

Send $5 P. O. order for system and instruction.
